TRAVELING TO CHILE

There are more than 20 airlines linking the Chilean capital with the rest of the world, with direct flights to cities in North America, Europe, Oceania, and of course throughout South America. Santiago's world-class international airport (SCL) is building for the future. A new, state-of-the-art international terminal opened in 2021, capable of handling up to 45 million passengers a year, and thus making Santiago the key hub in South America.
